Where is Jupiter Artland?
Jupiter Artland is a 120 acre sculpture park located about 30 minutes drive from central Edinburgh just off the A71. Please allow yourself plenty of time to find it if it is your first visit. Directions and travel information can be found on our website: www.jupiterartland.org/visit/directions

Where to park
Follow the road all the way round the Jupiter Artland estate, until you reach the gravel car park will on your right. Once parked there, you can walk up to the Steadings. Our disabled car park, reserved only for Blue Badge holders, is closer to the Steadings. Please do not go to the main house - Bonnington House is a private residence so please respect the privacy of the family. Jupiter Artland operates a one-way traffic system, so please follow exit signs upon departure and be aware of pedestrians at all times.

Where to go
From the Steadings, please make your way to the Learning area to the left of the Nicolas Party Café. The Woodland Classroom is at the end of the row of buildings.

Can I stay?
If you are attending during our Summer season (12 May - 30 Sep 2018), you are welcome to wait in the café. If you would like to visit the Artland, please purchase a ticket from the shop. Outside of our Summer season, there is no access to the Artland, but you are welcome to wait in our Bothy.

What to bring
Please make sure your child comes to the party with full waterproofs, wellies and layers, no matter what the weather when you set off. All of our parties are outdoors so be prepared for all Scottish weather possibilities.
