Fairy Kingdom

To: .................................................................

Date: .................................................................

Time: .................................................................

From: .................................................................

Food Allergies?: .................................................

RSVP: .................................................................

At Jupiter Artland, Bonnittington House Steadings, Nr Wilkieston, Edinburgh EH27 8BY
Where is Jupiter Artland?
Jupiter Artland is located about 30 minutes from central Edinburgh. Directions and travel information can be found on our website: www.jupiterartland.org/visit/directions.
If using a GPS, please use the postcode EH27 8BY

Where to park
Follow the entry road through the Artland and signs will direct you to the main car park. Our disabled car park is reserved for those with Blue Badges. Jupiter Artland operates a one-way traffic system, so please follow exit signs upon departure and be aware of pedestrians at all times.
Please do not approach the main house as this is a private residence.

Where to go
Follow the signs to the main steadings area and then make your way to the Learning area, to the left of Cafe Party, through the big grey gates. The classroom is further on in the smaller grey gates.

What to bring
Please make sure your child comes to the party will full waterproofs, wellies and layers in all weather conditions. All of our parties are based outdoors, so be prepared for all Scottish weather possibilities.

Can I stay?
You are welcome to enjoy Cafe Party during the party. If you would like to visit the Artland or any exhibitions, please purchase a ticket from the shop.

Jupiter Artland, Wilkieston, EH27 8BY
More info at www.jupiterartland.org

Jupiter Artland Foundation is a registered charity, (Charity no. SC0377732). All income generated goes towards our outreach programme inviting school groups from across Scotland to visit for free.