

JUPITER+ Perth

Book your free learning visit to Rachel Maclean's new artwork on Perth high street

JUPITER + is a new art programme led by Jupiter Artland that will see world class artwork appear across Scotland starting this October in Perth.

One of the most influential artists of her generation, Scottish artist Rachel Maclean is the first artist in this programme. Working in film, animation, sculpture, print, costume, textiles and set design, Rachel Maclean's practice is fascinating to explore. She is creating a remarkable space that will take over a retail unit on Perth High Street.

We are inviting students, secondary school groups & colleges to explore the work and take part in our Free Learning Programme. Each Free Learning Visit starts with a guided tour through Rachel Maclean's artwork on Perth High Street and is followed by a creative workshop facilitated by our JUPITER + Learning Team and it's all for free.

- 💖 Dates: 24 October to 22 December
- 💖 Days: Monday to Friday
- 💖 Location: Perth High Street
- 💖 Cost: FREE
- 💖 Length: Single session, half day or full day

Who is this for?

Our free programme invites students studying National Qualifications in Art & Design at National 5, Higher and Advanced Higher levels all the way through to students studying Further & Higher Education. It is also relevant to students studying Drama, Fashion, Photography, and Graphic Communication or as part of cross-curricular projects. Our Learning Team will discuss the aims of your visit in advance to ensure activities align with your students' learning objectives. Our Schools Programme is available for S4 students upwards, as the artwork is not intended for younger viewers.

Teacher CPD

The JUPITER + Programme provides structured Teacher CPD sessions that invite you as a pedagogic practitioner to extend your confidence and reflect on how contemporary art & design can exist within your curriculum and enrich your students' outcomes.

So what can I get from a school trip to JUPITER+?

A trip to JUPITER+ will kick start the next phase for your student's creative journey. They can enhance portfolio work, develop critical analysis skills and gain a greater awareness of contemporary art practice and creative careers. Students will be able to:

Enhance their Expressive Portfolios

Our JUPITER+ team will facilitate students to explore their own ideas, experiment with materials and processes, towards expressive individual outcomes.

Generate Design Ideas

Working to a given brief, students will be invited to work through the design process presenting their design solutions to the JUPITER+ team.

Develop Contextual Analysis Skills

Students will be invited to critically discuss Rachel Maclean's art practice, identifying materials and processes, themes and intentions, use of technology, and their social and cultural connections.

Gain insight into career pathways

Students will learn what it's like to work in the creative industry; as a visual artist, filmmaker, set designer, animator, costume or textile designer.

About Rachel Maclean

Known for her satirical characters and meticulously crafted fantasy worlds, Rachel Maclean has rapidly established herself as one of the most distinctive creative voices in the UK. Rachel Maclean's explorations into politics, society and identity have never been more relevant and we are thrilled to announce that Rachel Maclean is bringing her uniquely dark vision to Perth High Street as the first off-site project in our JUPITER + series.

Maclean's diverse art practice is defined by its bold use of film, animation, green screen video effects, soundtracks, digital print-making, costume, make-up, prop and set design. She uses the fairy-tale genre to examine the blurred boundary between childhood and adulthood utilising a candy-coloured visual language.

Since graduated from Edinburgh College of Art in 2009, she has won numerous awards, and has had solo exhibitions and commissions with Tate Britain; The National Gallery London; Talbot Rice Gallery; Jupiter Artland and Edinburgh Printmakers as well as representing Scotland + Venice at the Venice Biennale 2017. She lives and works in Glasgow.

About JUPITER+

Jupiter Artland is an award-winning sculpture park and contemporary art gallery located just outside Edinburgh. It is home to a growing collection of outdoor sculpture, powered by an annual commissioning programme that sees artists invited to create work in response to, and in dialogue with, the landscape. Unrivalled internationally, this unique programme has resulted in landmark permanent artworks by luminaires including Andy Goldsworthy, Antony Gormley, Phyllida Barlow, Rachel Maclean, Nathan Coley, Cornelia Parker, Charles Jencks and Tracey Emin.

JUPITER+ is our new off-site commissioning programme, which will see world-class artworks brought to locations and communities across Scotland.

Book your FREE learning visit today

JUPITER + is offering FREE visits and workshops to accompany a remarkable new artwork by Rachel Maclean set to appear on Perth High Street this October.

Each Free Learning Visit starts with guided visit through Rachel Maclean's new artwork on Perth High Street and is followed by a creative workshop facilitated by our JUPITER + Learning Team.

How do I sign-up?

- 📍 Book Online: www.jupiterartland.org/jupiter-free-school-visits
- 📍 Phone: 01506 889 900 (Option 4)
- 📍 Email: engagement@jupiterartland.org

What happens next?

You will be sent a pre-visit pack with all the information you need to plan your trip.

All images © Rachel Maclean or Jupiter Artland unless otherwise noted. p1 & p5 Photo © James Glossop. p2 & p4 © Rachel Maclean. p6 © Allan Pollok Morris. Design: Tom Joyes.